TARGETS

We need unity in our church, our families and the Body of Christ at large. We are praying for:

As we prayerfully enter this next phase of ministry, we must strategically address all of the elements that come with our move.

- The new territory
- Authority in the region
 - Breaking strongholds and an open heaven
- Ministering to the community
- Affecting the community culture
- Financial stability that lines up with the increased financial responsibility of Bethlehem-Judah

3. Expansion

 - That they be kept from the enticements of this age
- Salvation across generational barriers
- Deliverance from bondage, demonic influences, and holds
- Men!

6. Personal Breakthroughs

- Educational goals
- Forgiveness
- Financial Discipline
- Debt Cancellation & Credit improvement

7. Open Doors for Ministry Advancement

Pray that God provide opportunity [time and chance] for growth of ministry gifts at Bethlehem-Judah Church. Pray the God provide:

- Ministry Engagements
- Strategies for reaching the unsaved, the hurt, and the lost
- Finances that enable ministry that will meet the needs of those that the LORD will send

8. Servant Leadership

Many who lead, do not hold a heart and mind of servitude, especially when sudden growth or ministry successes are experienced. As we grow, we want to retain a servant's heart to help ensure that we serve effectively, and turn away the spirit of pride that would lead to destruction and a fall. Pray for:

- Humility among the church leadership
- Open and willing to lead by example, not just instruction/influence
- Spiritual insight to recognize & identify the gifts in others
- The willingness and ability to pour into others so that they might lead effectively
- Serving purposefully, effectively, and faithfully.

“Pray without ceasing.” 1 Thessalonians 5:17
